Due to the overwhelming request for kosher tortilla products in the Dallas area we will make the following information available to the kosher community.

As you are aware none of the packages have any hechsher on the package, but the Mission plants in Dallas and Houston are now certified as kosher by the CRC in Chicago. There are many Mission plants in the USA, some plants are kosher and others are NOT kosher. There is always the risk of this information not being communicated correctly, which may cause consumers to purchase the non-kosher product. Please read the following information carefully.

The inkjet code on the Mission products indicates when and where the products are made. Containers or packaging bearing the letters "D" or "DA" within the jet printed code date, designates that the products listed below are manufactured at the Dallas plant and the letters "H" or "HO" within the jet printed code date, designates that the products listed below are manufactured at the Houston plant and are therefore endorsed as Kosher-Pareve.

The following is the list of approved products made in the Dallas Plant:

Tortilla Chips
Taco Shells
Flour Tortillas
Corn Tortillas

The following is a list of approved products made in the Houston Plant:

Flour Tortillas
Corn Tortillas

This information is current through December 31, 2003.
